

AGENDA

- Learn about the Columbia River Treaty, its history and its value.
- Discuss the potential future of the Treaty and the efforts underway to understand what change could mean to the region.
- Tell us what you think and provide input on Iteration 3.

4:00 pm

Interest tables and staff available throughout the event

- Flood Risk Management
- Hydropower and Canadian Entitlement
- Ecosystems, Environment and Water Quality
- Water Supply
- Recreation
- Navigation

4:15 pm

Welcome and Introductions

Overview Presentation

- Columbia River and Treaty Basics
- Introduce Treaty Review and Progress

Questions and Answers

5:30 pm

Discussions

- Advancing Iteration 3 (side room)
- Recreation (main room)

7:00 pm

Close

- Contact & comment information on the back

Columbia River Treaty 2014/2024 Review
2013 Open Houses

Clarkston, April 24
Grand Coulee, April 25

For information

1. Visit: www.crt2014-2024review.gov
2. Email: treatyreview@bpa.gov or
3. Call: Bonneville Power Administration at 800-622-4519 or the Corps at 503-808-4510

To submit comments

Today: Write them down and hand to any staff

After the meeting:

1. Email: treatyreview@bpa.gov
2. Call: Bonneville Power Administration at 800-622-4519 or the Corps at 503-808-4510
3. Mail: Bonneville Power Administration
PO Box 3621
Portland, OR 97208-3621
4. FAX: 503-230-4563

To contact a member of the Sovereign Review Team, find information here:

www.crt2014-2024review.gov/SovReviewTeam.aspx