

AGENDA

- Learn about the Columbia River Treaty, its history and its value.
- Discuss the potential future of the Treaty and the efforts underway to understand what change could mean to the region.
- Tell us what you think and provide input on work advancing under Iteration 3.

3:00 pm

Interest tables and staff available throughout the event

- Introducing the Treaty and Treaty Review
- Flood Risk Management
- Hydropower and Canadian Entitlement
- Ecosystems, Environment and Water Quality
- Water Supply, Navigation and Recreation
- Comment and Discussion Areas

3:15 pm

Welcome and Introductions

Overview Presentation

- Columbia River and Treaty Basics
- Introduce Treaty Review

Questions and Answers

4:45 pm

Facilitated Discussion: Advancing Iteration 3

Overview Presentation (repeat if needed)

6:00 pm

Close

Contact & comment information on the back

Contact & comment

For information on Columbia River Treaty 2014/2024 Review:

1. Visit: www.crt2014-2024review.gov
2. Email: treatyreview@bpa.gov or
3. Call: Bonneville Power Administration at 800-622-4519 or the Corps at 503-808-4510

To submit comments:

Today: Write them down and hand to any staff

After the meeting:

1. Email treatyreview@bpa.gov
2. Call: Bonneville Power Administration at 800-622-4519 or the Corps at 503-808-4510
3. Mail: Bonneville Power Administration
PO Box 3621
Portland, OR 97208-3621
4. FAX: 503-230-4563